Early Spring Bulletin

Hello everyone

Well, the weather may still be playing tricks on us but here at the Resource Centre we're full of plans for the year ahead.

We have our grand Easter Bring and Buy coming up then after Easter we'll be opening up early one morning a week for Talk 'n' Toast - an opportunity for a bit of breakfast and a chat, we're planning a series of outings for the Over 50s' Club and hope to be re-starting the Living Life to the Full Group.

So read on for more information about these and our regular activities.

AGM

This will be on Tuesday 20th April 2.00pm - the full agenda will be in our forthcoming newsletter and our guest speaker will be Stella Brocklebank from the Pensions service who will also take questions and be able to arrange follow up visits for anyone needing more information.

An Ideal Gift for Mothers' Day

Why not buy Mum a copy of Betty Page's collection of poems - Memories ... Reflections on a Life in Preanes Green.

It is a funny and moving collection from our own local poet and at only £2 a copy, you can't go wrong

Over 50s' Coffee Club

We meet every Thursday morning from 10 - 11.30 for a good old chat and a laugh. And thanks to funding from the Quartet Older People's Fund, we're planning a number of outings again this year. So don't miss out. Come along and join us

Junior Activity Club

A brilliant chance for the 8 - 13 year olds to have fun together.

This term the club meets every Thursday evening from 5.30 - 7.30 and costs just 75p a session.

To find out more, come along with a parent to chat to Abbie, the club leader.

Free WiFi

From 10 - 12 every weekday morning access the internet FREE.

Just bring along your wi-fi enabled laptop or mobile and surf away. Or you can use our Broadband connection - only 50p for 30 minutes You'll be offered a very warm welcome.
